

I believe that there should be no line items on phone bills. Total service cost should include any taxes etc.. I know exactly what I am paying on my mortgage, up front, before signing anything, and I know exactly what the payment will be monthly. The way phone companies do it, it's guess work for the consumer.